GARDENING.

The season has come in which the trees and shrubs of the garden and vard demand attention, if they are expected to pay for the ground they occupy; and that they will make a generous return for proper attention and care they have always abundantly proved.— As pertinent to this subject, we reprint the following appropriate hints from the Germantown Telegraph of the last week: A FEW SHORT HINTS .- Cherry grafting should be done as soon as possible. Now is the time to stick your Current and dies, original and selected, arranged for musical instruments, and illustrated by many anecdotes growth; cut out all the buds buried in the earth; insert six inches, leaving eight or ten inches above ground. By this course you will have trees instead of bushes, bearing much more abundantly, fruit finer, and stock prettier. Break off carefully the top-dressing from the strawberry, asparagus, tulip, and flower beds. Also take off the covering from the spinach bed. We have now spinach fit to

The early pea should be in the ground by this time, provided the weather continues warm. Sow with your lettuce in a warm bor-Trim your dwarf pear trees. We find it good policy to head them in pretty closely.

Cut out all the dead wood, and a good deal of the old wood of your roses. The roses bear sharp pruning. Trim and tie up your Raspberries. They never should be trimmed in the fall unless Transplant your fruit and ornamental trees, shrubs, and vines now as rapidly as possible. The earlier they are in the better. We found the following verses in an obscure corner of an exchange. They have a merit and tenderness that a father or mother alone can appreciate: THE BABIE. Nae shoon to hide her tiny toe, Nae stocking on her feet, Her supple ankle white as snaw, Or early blossoms sweet. Her simple dress of sprinkled pink, Her double, dimpled chin, Her puckered lip and baumy mou,

Her een, sae like her mither's een, Twa gentle liquid things, Her face is like an angel's face-We're glad she has nae wings. She is the budding o' our love, A giftie God gie'd us;

With na one tooth between.

We munna love the gift ow'er weel, I wad be nae blessing thus.
